

SUBMIT YOUR ABSTRACT FOR THE 2020 NAP FORUM

This year's title is Innovations in Interprofessional Collaboration: Scholarship, Practice and Advocacy.

This year's themes are Current Status for Interprofessional Scholarship, Practice and Advocacy and Emerging and Future Trends for Interprofessional Scholarship, Practice and Advocacy.

Deadline for Submission is September 11, 2019

Please note this is a firm deadline and will not be extended.

The National Academies of Practice Call for Abstracts is open with opportunities to submit for a variety of interprofessional sessions (platform/oral, symposium/panel, workshop, and poster) for the 2020 Annual Forum, March 12-14, 2020 in San Diego, CA.

Abstract content should be associated with one of the Forum's themes: Current Status for Interprofessional Scholarship, Practice and Advocacy and Emerging and Future Trends for Interprofessional Scholarship, Practice and Advocacy.

Abstracts for all sessions are to be submitted online by Wednesday, September 11, 2019 through the NAP website.

We welcome abstracts from all; NAP membership is not required to submit an abstract. For more information and to review the abstract submission guidelines, please refer to the NAP website.

If you have questions about the submission process, please contact Ashley Peter at apeter@AMRms.com or call 859-514-9174.
